INFORMATION

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The Texas Education Code (TEC) requires school districts to report the results of their security audits under TEC §37.108(c) to both the school board and the Texas School Safety Center (TxSSC) as follows:

A school district [...] shall report the results of the safety and security audit [...] to the district's board of trustees and, in the manner required by the Texas School Safety Center, to the Texas School Safety Center. (TEC §37.108(c))

The District holds regular safety meetings and conducts safety audits every three years. The EOPs are regularly updated in accordance with the most recent safety requirements and guidelines.
