Congratulations to Mr. Kevin Kicking Woman – Montana Teacher of the Year 2023

On Sept 28, MT Superintendent of Schools Elsie Artzen made a surprise visit to BHS to inform all of BHS, BPS, Browning, Blackfeet Nation, Glacier County, and the entire state of MT that our very own BNAS teacher Kevin Kicking Woman was selected as the Mt Teacher of the Year 2023. Mr. Kicking Woman had been waiting since Sept 13 for any word of how the final interview went. We were able to secretly invite his family, students, staff and other dignitaries to BHS to be a part of his award celebration.

Browning High School Students and Staff are proud of their Montana Teacher of the Year 2023!!

Honor Dinner

On Sept 28 BHS, BPS, and BNAS honored Mr. Kicking Woman with a dinner. Originally advertised as an honor dinner as being in the top 4 finalists of MTOY, once we were able to formally announce OPI's final selection, it turned into MTOY honor dinner! BHS students assisted with preparing the meal along with BHS cooks-Carla, Joann and Ron. BHS students-Haiden, Jessa, Shania, Sophia, Latesha, Kellan, Tanner, and Rae Shaun served frybread, salads and cake. BHS staff Melanie, Ladean, Fran, Angel, Lucy and Johanna served plates and assisted with clean up. Thank you to the custodians for setting up along with working the volleyball game-Phillip, Anson, Russell, George and Brynlee.

Congratulations Boys Class A Cross Country 2023 Champions & our 11th place Girls Team

After the State Cross Country Tournament Songs were sang for the Boys team who placed 1st and the Girls team who placed 11th. A caravan met the teams and led them into town for a victory cruise. The teams and community members met at BHS for more honor songs and a round dance.

The teams were honored at the Tribal Confederacy Conference and the School Board meeting.
