Termination of Agreement

This Agreement may be terminated at any time by Company or the Independent Contractor, by written notice to the other party. Notice shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given either when served personally or when sent by first-class mail addressed to the parties at the addresses set forth in this Agreement. Company shall not be liable for, nor shall the Independent Contractor be liable to perform, any services or expenses incurred after the receipt of notice of termination.

Independent Contractor Status

The Independent Contractor expressly represents and warrants to Company that (1) she is not and shall not be construed to be an employee of the Company and that her status shall be that of an independent contractor solely responsible for her actions and inactions; (2) the Independent Contractor shall act solely as an Independent Contractor, not as an employee or agent of Company; and (3) the Independent Contractor is not authorized to enter into contracts or agreements on behalf of Company or to otherwise create obligations of Company to third parties.

Assignability

This Agreement shall not be transferred or assigned, in whole or in part, by the Independent Contractor without the prior written consent of Company.

Choice of Law

Any dispute under this Agreement, or related to this Agreement, shall be decided in accordance with the laws of the state of Texas.

Agreement

This Agreement supersedes all prior oral or written agreements, if any, between the parties and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. The Agreement cannot be changed or modified orally. This Agreement may be supplemented, amended, or revised only in writing by agreement of the parties.

Confidential Matters and Proprietary Information

The Independent Contractor recognizes that during the course of contract performance she may acquire knowledge or confidential business information or trade secrets. The Independent Contractor agrees to keep all confidential information in a secure place and further agrees not to publish, communicate, divulge, use, or disclose, directly or indirectly, for her own benefit or for the benefit of another, either during or after contract performance, any confidential business information or trade secrets. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, Independent Contractor shall deliver all records, data, information, and other computer media or documents produced or acquired during the performance of this Agreement and all copies thereof to Company. Such material shall remain the property of Company. This obligation of confidence shall not apply with respect to information that (1) is available to the Independent Contractor from third parties on an unrestricted basis; or (2) is disclosed by Company to others on an unrestricted basis.

Conflicts of Interest

The Independent Contractor shall not act as an agent for, consultant to, or as an officer, employee, or other representative of any subcontractor or supplier to Company, or serve in any of the foregoing capacities for any of Company's competitors or prospective competitors, without giving prior written notification to Company. The Independent Contractor hereby warrants that there is no conflict of interest between the Independent Contractor's other employment, if any, or other contracts, if any, and the activities to be performed hereunder. The Independent Contractor shall advise Company if a conflict of interest arises in the future.

Inventions, Patents, Trademarks

The terms "work," "trademark," and "invention" include anything created for Company by the Independent Contractor, whether alone or with others, and whether those others be independent contractors, employees, or agents of Company.

1. The term "work" means any and all writings, designs, models, drawings, photographs, physical property, reports, etc., that are protectable under Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
2. The term "trademark" means any name, word, phrase, logo, design, or other graphic depiction generated during the performance of this Agreement that is or can be used to describe either a product or service of Company.
