News from the Field

- Utah State University – Emma Parkhurst – Shared information about what they offer. At USU Extension. Extension.edu.usu SnapEd is gone – but you can go through EFNEP for food classes. They offer Financial wellness classes that are available on their website. They offer free webinars in English and Spanish. You can go to the website to find a list of webinars. January 30 – 9:30 – 2:30 they are offering a Budget Mastermind Workshop for free. You can bring your own financial documents and can work with a financial advisor, lunch is provided. Utah Money Matters is their Instagram site. Create Better Health is still available – they are in the process of revamping the website, they are more a connector instead of offering services. Equine experience is available for different ages and classes – if cost is an issue, reach out and check for scholarships. Resiliency classes for 14-18. There is also a 4-H extension available. There are a lot more but just wanted to highlight a few things. Can also call if you have any questions, they are here to help.

Self-Assessment: Marianne went over the Self-Assessment Summary by each area and shared suggestions for improvements and action plans, even though we had no findings. It was also sent out to members prior to the meeting. Motion to approve made by Jessica Spencer, 2nd by Melissa Hunter, passed unanimously.

Learning Genie: Will went over the data from Learning Genie. We are doing pretty good – but we are a little behind on In-Kind – so encourage your parents to get their In-Kind hours entered. You’re doing amazing, let’s keep it up.

Held elections for Vice Chair –

Tassey Pierce – told a little about herself and why she would like to be elected Vice-Chair. She would like to be more involved and be a leader. (Elected)

Brianna Castro – shared a little why she would be good – has a lot of passion to put into the program, organized, works hard at what she does.

Motion to adjourn made by Melissa Hunter, 2nd by Jessica Booth, passed unanimously.

Important Dates to Remember: Winter Break Dec 22, 2025-Jan 2, 2026

Next Policy Council meeting will be January 21st at 6:00 pm @ DTC
