BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETING
April 16, 2018

ITEM: VI.F.

TOPIC:                   Approval to Purchase Chromebooks for LCTC – CTE 61a Added Cost Funds

RECOMMENDATION:

Move that the Board of Education of the Livonia Public Schools School District approve the purchase of 90 Dell Chromebooks and three carts from Presidio, for a total cost of $32,703.

RATIONALE:

The Chromebooks and three carts will replace the six year old laptops that have aged beyond functional use. The Chromebooks will enhance the instructional and learning environment of the Sports Medicine, Pre-Nursing/Pre-Medical, and Intro to Health Care courses.

BUDGETARY INFORMATION:

The funding for this purchase will be from the State of Michigan Career Technical Education funding also known as “61a” funding. The 61a funding is provided each year to CTE programs to assist with the purchase of CTE equipment.
