Why do you love Sam Case?

Link To Video

I like this school because this school is one of the schools I went to in the US. The teachers are also very good to me...

AVID

Advancement Via Individual Determination

To increase the current school-wide application of vertically and horizontally aligned WICOR strategies.

Organization

Each grade level routinely uses specific AVID organizational tools such as: interactive notebooks and planners to organize thinking and learning.

Academic Language

Each grade level will develop and use academic language through the use of word walls, language scripts, language functions and word banks.

Critical Reading Strategies

All grade levels will routinely use AVID Critical Reading Strategies, such as three reads and marking the text to increase rigor and retention of learning through reading and notetaking.
