Dear Juan:

The University Interscholastic League recognizes that the benefits of interscholastic competition and student performance are made possible by dedicated directors, sponsors and coaches such as you. Therefore, the UIL is pleased to present you with this certificate designating you as a nominee for the 2018 UIL Sponsor Excellence Award. Only one faculty member from each high school in Texas can be nominated. Congratulations!

School administrators from across the state nominated teachers, directors and coaches such as yourself for this recognition. The accomplishments of each of these nominees clearly demonstrate the high level of dedication, care and achievement you all share as exemplary sponsors of UIL events. We know your students, peers and administrators take great pride in this achievement.

Following an extensive selection process, the UIL Sponsor Excellence Award winners will be selected and notified during the month of January.

In closing, on behalf of the UIL and its member schools, let us thank you for your commitment to UIL programs and the benefits they provide for the young people of Texas. Please know we are proud of you and applaud the high standards you hold for your students, school and community.

Respectfully,

Charles Breithaupt
UIL Executive Director
