

Superintendent's Cafeteria Task Force 2015 Summary 2016 Plans

June 20, 2016

This Year's Accomplishments

- Chefs Move To Schools: 2 Professional Guest Chef Visits
 - 2 Collaborative Visits with Dietetic Interns
- Farm to School: Massaro Farm Purchase and Connections
- Monthly Tastings: Herbed Roasted Squash Boats, Quinoa Salad, Made-From-Scratch Hummus, Edamame, Southwest Chickpea Salsa, Kale Chips,
- Wellness Wakeup Messages on Weekly Broadcasts
- Monthly Nutrition Bulletin Board in Serving Area
- Scrolling Monitor Outside Cafeteria
- Annual Nutrition Awareness Day (March 2016 and October 2016)
- Tasting Recipes and Wellness Wakeup Messages on Website

It's all part of getting students engaged in healthy eating habits

The CHEF Connection

Let's Move Chefs to Schools

- ✓ Recipe development
- ✓ Nutrition education
- ✓ Skill building for staff
- ✓ Interaction with students

Our Chefs in Schools

Chef Mark's Visit: Creating Foodscapes

Take 1 English Cucumber.....

Cut, scoop and shape.....

Bring in some herbs, yellow squash and carrots, melon balls....

Landscaping

Loading the cars

And That's Not All!

Lunch Time Magic!

Up Close, Looking AND Touching!

Fun AND Educational

- Nutrition Education on the serving area Bulletin Board. These monthly messages are expanded and reinforced by the Weekly Wellness Wakeups.

The FIRST Tasting: a collaborative effort of the food service, building staff, administration, the chef and the PTO

Chef Suzanne and Her Sizzlin' Squash

Prepping 80# of squash

Sampling Cups, and The Road Map

Farm to School Progress

- ✓ Develop partnerships with local growers and producers
- ✓ Purchase and serve local products
- ✓ Nutrition Education
- ✓ Organic kale was purchased from Massaro Farm for Baked Kale Chips
- ✓ Massaro Farm has offered to assist with the start of a school garden

Wellness Wakeup Messages

- One concept highlighted each week on the student broadcasts
- Supported with monthly bulletin board displays
- Complete monthly collection of messages is available on website

Nutrition Awareness Day

- “Read Aloud” in each classroom: Lori Patrick chose books around nutrition, fitness, and healthy lifestyles
- 3 dietetic interns from USJ participated as guest readers
- Interns created colorful handouts for lunchtime info table
- Interns distributed healthy snack tastings of dried fruit and edamame
- Book-themed menu for the day

A Little Help From Our Friends

Teaching and Tasting

Inspiring Creativity

Where Are We Going Next Year?

- Continued Guest Chefs
- Expansion of Local Produce Purchasing
- School Garden
- Continued Collaborative Intern Experiences (U of St Joseph and Amity HS)
- New Alternative Menu Choices
- Additional Smarter Lunchroom Strategy Implementation

- The Smarter Lunchrooms Movement was started in 2009 with the goal of creating sustainable research-based lunchrooms that guide smarter choices. It is a grassroots movement of those concerned with the way children eat and wish to change these behaviors through the application of evidence-based lunchroom focused principles that promote healthful eating.

*One small change, one BIG result
Right in our own serving area*

BEFORE.....

This “Hot Spot” on the serving line was being used for utensils and condiments.

Re-think the “FOCUS”

AFTER: Re-purposing the real estate...

“Hot Spot” now utilized for meal component items

Effective signage reinforces focus on fruits and vegetables

Signage is fun and colorful

It makes taking a fruit or veggie seem like a great deal

NEW for 2016!

Salad Shakers:

A new concept that has great applicability for BRS:

Bento Boxes:

another new idea that has great possibilities in BRS

New Alternate Meal Choices for 2016-17

Salad
Shakers

The Next “New Idea”.....

- Bento Boxes

KEELEY MCGUIRE BLOG

Non-Traditional Mixes of Components

Dessert for Lunch Anyone?

One Additional Accomplishment This Year

- Jane Roddy has contributed 25 years of service to feeding the children of Beecher Road School!

Next Steps

- Continue to plan for new initiatives
- Refine and expand existing successful initiatives
- Task Force input.....