At the expulsion hearing, the Board or its hearing officer will consider evidence concerning whether your child is guilty of gross disobedience or misconduct and should be expelled from school. The hearing will be held in closed session. At this hearing you have each of the following rights:

1. To be present.
2. To appear with a representative for your child throughout the proceedings, who may address the Board or its hearing officer. You must inform the District if your child will appear with a representative and, if so, the representative's name and contact information.
3. To offer evidence.
4. To present witnesses and cross-examine witnesses who testify. If the hearing involves allegations of sexual violence by the student, insert the following: However, please note that because the hearing involves allegations of sexual violence by your child, neither your child nor your child's representative shall directly question nor have direct contact with the alleged victim. Your child or child's representative may, at the discretion of the Board or its hearing officer, suggest questions to be posed by the Board or its hearing officer to the alleged victim.
5. To present other reasons why your child should not be expelled, including any factor to be considered in mitigation. Such factors may include, if applicable, your child's status as a parent, expectant parent, or victim of domestic or sexual violence as defined in 105 ILCS 5/26A.

Please be advised that your child's representative and/or support person must comply with any hearing rules and may be prohibited from further participation if they violate District rules or engage in behavior or advocacy that harasses, abuses, or intimidates either party, a witness, or anyone else in attendance at the hearing.

After presentation of evidence or receipt of the hearing officer's report, the Board will decide the issue of guilt and take such actions as it finds appropriate.
