SUGGESTED SCHOOL BOARD ACTION:

Report- no action necessary

DESCRIPTION:

Extended School Year Services are provided to eligible students who currently receive special education services. School Districts are required by federal law to provide Extended School Year Services to eligible students. Eligibility is based on regression and recoupment of skills, self-sufficiency or unique needs. Eligibility is determined through a review of data at the IEP team meeting. There is an increase in our K-21 population of eligible students and our students in the birth to age two category with a total of 16 additional students in comparison to 2018. There is a decrease in our eligible students age 3-5 with six fewer students in comparison to 2018.
