3. ORAL LANGUAGE

Let's Talk: Decreasing the Oral Language Gap

PRESENTER: Nacole Guyton

Research shows that a child hears varying amounts of words between ages 0-5, depending on their family's socioeconomic status. Join this session to learn how to address the oral language needs of these children. Nacole prescribes assessment, planning, and implementation strategies to avoid academic struggles and prevent children from falling behind.

4. CLASSROOM & BEHAVIOR MANAGEMENT

Tackling Transitions

PRESENTER: Brandon Williams

Transitions—they can be tough, especially when children are asked to sit still, remain quiet, and WAIT. It doesn't have to be this way. Brandon demonstrates techniques that turn transition times into opportunities to reinforce what you're teaching. Plus, get classroom management strategies for minimizing transitions throughout your daily routine.
