

Courtney Geisler
Principal
West Haven Elementary

To Whom it May Concern,

I am nominating Mrs. Hillary Lundgreen for the I Love Teaching award. Mrs. Lundgreen is an incredible teacher and esteemed among her colleagues. As a principal, I consider myself lucky to have her among our West Haven faculty.

Mrs. Lundgreen is an experienced and highly qualified teacher with a wealth of knowledge. Her expertise is not only recognized by her peers but is deeply respected by our school community. She guides her students to success and serves as a mentor to her peers. She is committed to student learning and holds high expectations for all her students. She helps each student reach their full potential and guides them with the support they need to succeed. In her classroom students are challenged academically and she guides them in their personal and social growth.

Mrs. Lundgreen makes significant contributions to our school in a variety of ways. She is an expert mentor teacher. She has selflessly dedicated her time to training and mentoring many first-year teachers. Her commitment to our school goes above and beyond the classroom. She is on multiple leadership teams where her insights are highly valued.

Mrs. Hillary Lundgreen is a trusted and esteemed member of our school community. Her character, professionalism, and dedication to education make her an outstanding candidate for the I Love Teaching award.

Sincerely,

Courtney Geisler, Principal
West Haven Elementary
