

Uvalde School Board Spring Workshop

Thursday, May 7, 2015

Sul Ross State University—Rio Grande College

Briscoe Building Auditorium

Uvalde, Texas

Program Agenda

5:30 p.m. Registration Opens

6–7:15 p.m. First General Session

Legislative Update

The Texas Legislature convened in January, which means state leaders are considering proposals for school finance, facilities funding, property taxation, governance, testing and accountability, student discipline, and much more. This session brings up-to-the-minute information to your region.

7:15–7:45 p.m. Dinner (provided by Sul Ross—Rio Grande College)

7:45–9 p.m. Second General Session

Oversight or Overstepping? The Sequel

The first Oversight or Overstepping course was so popular we've developed new scenarios to explore the intersection of governance, management, and oversight. In this interactive session, participants will discuss and decide how the board can properly and practically exercise its roles and responsibilities without overstepping its authority.

Registration Information

Eligible CEC: Up to 2.5 hours

Fee: Free (includes dinner)

Deadline: Thursday, April 30, 2015

To submit attendee names for registration, and/or contact for more information:

- E-mail Clay Baulch, cbaulch@sulross.edu, or
- Call 830.758.5038.

LTS.tasb.org

Texas Association of School Boards

