Background Information and Rationale:

On Friday, August 15, 2025, the Texas Education Agency will release Texas school accountability ratings for the 2024 and 2025 school years. The website txschools.gov will have updated information for schools and districts.

The Texas Accountability System is designed to evaluate the performance of public schools and districts, focusing on student achievement, progress, and closing achievement gaps. It aims to ensure transparency and provide meaningful information to stakeholders for continuous improvement.

Support of Strategic Goals:

- Goal 1: DISD supports students in a multitude of ways to nurture learning and ensure high performance.
- Goal 3: DISD fosters relationships with students, families and community members to ensure a culture of excellence.
