To Whom It May Concern:

A total of 15 new laptops (worth about $900 each) was generously donated by a company that wishes to remain anonymous. These laptops will be utilized in the classrooms in conjunction with the EIKI's we now have and assist with student learning. On behalf of our students and staff, we would like to thank our generous donor for this wonderful donation that was greatly needed.

Sincerely,

Re: Letter of Thanks

Ms. Compean and Mr. Trevino,

I would like to extend a world of thanks and gratitude on your generous donation for our performance at the 2008 TAMIU Student Affairs Symposium on May 14, 2008. It was an educational and musical experience for the jazz band as well as for myself. The audience response was most welcomed and appreciated.

We were invited to perform through Mr. Joe Guerra who is with the Music Dept. on campus and we eagerly obliged to the event as an opportunity to gain public performance experience and give back to the community in service.

Your donation was a welcomed surprise but a kind gesture nonetheless. On behalf of the Lyndon B. Johnson High School Mighty Wolf Jazz Ensemble, we look forward to continued educational relations with TAMIU and extend our musical services if ever you may find need for us again.

Thank you for your time, your generosity and support.

Sincerely,

Mr. Eliseo Morales, Jr.

Mr. Morales:

On the evening of May 14th, 2008, the Lyndon B. Johnson Jazz Ensemble graced the University campus to the delight of all our 2008 TAMUS Student Affairs Symposium participants.

We had close to 150 individuals partake in the conference and the LBJ Jazz Ensemble was the opening to our Evening of International Cuisine. All in attendance were in awe and amazed at the level of talent your students showed. At the end of their performance, they received a huge applause and congratulatory remarks.

Enclosed you will find a small token of appreciation for their performance. It is our way of expressing our thanks for such a great performance and we hope it will help the LBJ Jazz Ensemble in future endeavors.

Sincerely,
