We are asking approval for out of state travel to the National Association of School Resources Officers Conference.

Dates: July 6th -11th, 2025

Location: Gaylord Texan in Grapevine, TX

Estimated Cost: $2600 per person (conference fee, airfare, hotel)

Attending: Deputy Konieczny (SRO), Jessica Falkenhagen (Principal, District Safety Coordinator)

Funding coming from: Title I

Provide history/background information on your proposal:

The National Association of School Resource Officers (NASRO) is dedicated to making schools and children safer by providing the highest quality training to school-based law enforcement officers, superintendents, and school administrators. In previous years we have attended the Oregon SRO conference.

List the advantages of your proposal:

Advantages of attending this conference are the course offered at this conference. Our SRO will attend a specific SRO course that will provide him with up to date training, certification and information regarding being a SRO. Other high level courses offered are: Recent Online Threat Trends and Practical Tools to Assess and Respond; Youth Crisis Response Team; Social Media, Artificial Intelligence, Threats and our Youth; School Safety Best Practices; Life After a School Tragedy; Multi-Agency School Emergency Response; Run, Hide, Fight; Two Decades of School Shootings - Lessons for Prevention and Response; Conducting Effective School Emergency Training Exercises and many more.

List possible disadvantages of your proposal:

The heat

List possible alternatives that could also offer a solution to your proposal. Why were they not recommended?

Continue attending the Oregon SRO Conference, but it does not offer the level of sessions/courses nor does it offer the certified SRO course.
