
Elections – Amends the Constitution to allow consecutive terms for the secretary/treasurer

WHEREAS, the OSBA Board of Directors have assessed the terms to which the association's officers are elected and have determined that some change is needed; and

WHEREAS, the OSBA Board of Directors recommends that the association's constitution be amended to allow the person elected to the position of secretary-treasurer to be re-elected to that position and serve up to two consecutive one-year terms.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Article 10, Section 2 of the OSBA Constitution be amended as follows:

The terms of office for officers shall be one calendar year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The terms of office for board of director members shall be staggered and shall be for two calendar years and until their successors are elected and qualified. The terms of office for regionally elected members of the legislative policy committee shall be two calendar years. No officer except the secretary-treasurer shall serve two consecutive terms in the same office unless the director completed a term for another officer who was unable to complete a term and is then voted into the same position the following year. The secretary-treasurer may serve up to two consecutive one-year terms.
