Subject: Capital Facilities/Properties and District Needs Assessment

Summary:

This discussion item will focus on the process to determine the long-term uses of the properties of the four recently closed school sites. The discussion will include prioritizing district needs of the properties, community needs, and other possible uses. Please come ready to provide thoughts on how these properties may best be used to serve as an asset to both the district and the community.

We will also discuss potential processes in ultimately determine how those properties are used.
