

School Health Advisory Committee

SHAC provides recommendations specific to changes and/or additions to school health education curriculum that impacts the entire school district.

SHAC supports the district in recommending age-appropriate health education programs, and early intervention and prevention strategies that can easily be supported by local families and community stakeholders.

Topics include coordinated school health programs, guidance and counseling, safe and healthy school environment, and school employee wellness.