Appeal of 2013 Property Study

The Appraisal District will appeal the Comptroller's valuations of (1) single family residences (2) Rural (Non-Ag) structures/homes and acreages (3) utility companies. There will also be an appeal of agricultural lands.

An open record request to the Comptroller for copies of their sales and work data concerning the State's on-site review of the district. There is a very short time frame for the appeal process. The deadline for the Appraisal District to file is May 12th. Once they file the appeal and their documents there is an informal appeal session, and should that appeal fail then there will be formal appeals before a judge in Austin. The Appraisal District will represent the school district at the informal and formal appeals in Austin. The final results will be the PTD value the T.E.A. utilizes in the school's State funding calculations.

Mr. Benson said that he would keep us abreast during this process.
