What is TELPAS?

- Texas English Language Proficiency Assessment System.
- All English Language Learners (ELLs) are assessed in TELPAS every Spring in the State of Texas.
- TELPAS measures Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing proficiencies through a composite rating for an overall progress result.

Composite Rating

The TELPAS Composite Rating provides a single measure of a student's English language domains in:

- listening
- speaking
- reading
- writing

It is generated to demonstrate if a student is at a Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced, or Advanced High proficiency level.

PROFICIENCY LEVEL DESCRIPTORS

- ❖ Beginning: little or no ability to understand and use English in academic and social settings
- ❖ Intermediate: ability to understand and use simple, high-frequency spoken English used in routine academic and social settings
- ❖ Advanced: ability to understand and use with support, grade-appropriate spoken English used in academic and social settings
- ❖ Advanced High: ability to understand and use, with minimal support, grade-appropriate spoken English used in academic and social settings

Progress

Progress, is the percentage of current English Language Learners in Grades K-12 who have made progress in developing their English language proficiency since it was last assessed.

- To make progress, a student must have an increase of at least one proficiency level on the TELPAS Composite rating from the most recent prior year to the current year.
