Parents wishing to educate children in the home may do so in compliance with Connecticut General Statutes and regulations of the Connecticut State Board of Education. Parents file with the Superintendent of Schools in the town in which they reside a Notice of Intent form (attached to this policy) that provides basic information about the program to be provided to their child. A Notice of Intent is effective for up to one school year and is filed annually.

If decisions are made by parents or guardians to return children who for a time have been educated at home to local schools, school staff shall provide an appropriate return to the public schools.

Children educated at home are considered to be non-public school students and are not part of the system's educational responsibility and are not part of the school system.
