Good afternoon - I am elated and honored to serve as your keynote speaker. My title and fee is located below:

Lessons Learned on my Journey from Poverty to EdD

In her signature talk, Dr. Jones shares about her journey from poverty to EdD. She discusses the power of education, and how she found her voice through it. Additionally, she covers her life philosophy that is grounded in Restorative Justice Principles, and provides powerful lessons on how to overcome obstacles through her life experiences as it relates to rising from poverty to becoming a prominent community member. Dr. Jones believes that, A Journey Not Shared is a Soul Not Healed.

Cost: $1,500 up to 60 minutes or $2,500 Workshop 90 minutes - 3 hours

I would like to propose that I have the opportunity to sale my books as well. If this is something I can do, I would like to offer my keynote speaking engagement for $1500.

If you have any questions, please let me know as soon as possible.

Grace and Peace,

Dr. Shaniqua Jones

Good afternoon Dr. Jones,

Thank you again for sharing with the participants who came to Brooks Middle School on May 4, 2019 for the showing of the movie Resilience. We are ecstatic that you are willing to come and share with the entire staff, administration and school board on our first institute day of the 2019-20 school year, (August 15, 2019). We plan to replicate the presentation done on May 4th. You will be our keynote speaker, with approximately 30-45 minutes to address the audience.

Ms. Dana Nichols is our AMAZING Director of Teaching and Learning (who is on this email) is requesting that you send her your proposal for August 15, 2019 and any other information we may need to submit to the board of education for approval.

Thank you again for your continued work with the many students and families you serve and your continuous encouragement and support to the field of education.
