

Construction Update February 9, 2009

1. Structural steel for press box will be delivered on March 2nd and erection process will begin.
2. Grade beams for north section of press box will be poured this week. South grade beam is complete.
3. All rough-in plumbing for press box should be complete by February 20th.
4. Weather permitting, the slab of the press box should be poured the week of February 23rd.
5. A 10 ft. sidewalk will be poured around the press box slab after press box slab is poured.
6. The restroom facility on the visitor side of stadium is almost complete.
7. Metal construction work on the home dressing room extension will begin this week.
8. Plans to begin the visitor bleacher extension is still on schedule to begin in mid March.
9. The date for completion of press box addition is still July 31st. The drop dead date is August 22nd.