

PRINCIPAL / HEAD TEACHER

BP 10050

Charter School Principal

A charter school principal must possess a current Alaska Administrative Certificate and be either an existing principal in the district or be eligible for hire as a district administrator. A retired district administrator may serve as a charter school principal if the administrator left the district in good standing, had satisfactory performance evaluations, and has a current administrative certificate. The school district assumes no responsibility for employing this person after the termination of the charter school contract except as required by state statute and/or an applicable negotiated agreement.

If the charter school Academic Policy Committee desires to contract by addendum with a principal who is currently employed as a district principal, the superintendent's approval is required prior to entering into the contract.

Charter School Head Teacher

A charter school head teacher is not required to possess an Alaska type B administrative certificate. A head teacher must possess an Alaska type A certificate and be either an existing teacher in the district or be eligible for hire as a district teacher. A retired district teacher may serve as a charter school head teacher if the teacher left the district in good standing, had satisfactory performance evaluations, and has a current teacher certificate. The school district assumes no responsibility for employing this person after the termination of the charter school contract except as required by state statute and/or an applicable negotiated agreement.
