

---

TJCSGA STATE CONVENTION RECAP

---

Presented by Layla Leeah on behalf of the 2024-25 Lee College SGA

6/25/2025

- Statewide: represents the students and interests of Texas community colleges
- State and regional boards are student-run alongside an advisor
- Organizes workshops, award opportunities, regional meetings, and an annual state convention

CONVENTION CONTEXT

- April 10-13th, Moody Gardens in Galveston
- Attended by Secretary Camille Warren, Treasurer Layla Leeah, Parliamentarian Leyla Kwe, Advisor Michael Pounds, and Co-Advisor Jo Greathouse
- Six leadership workshops, daily regional and general assemblies, keynote speech from Congresswoman Sylvia Garcia, voting, document amending, recreation, and awards

WORKSHOP HIGHLIGHT

KATIE PFEUFFER
"Wave goodbye to boring
teambuilding"
Vine Room

- Student Life Program Specialist at the University of Texas Medical Branch, six years of experience in teambuilding and activities for all ages and abilities
- Experiential Learning: split into groups and given tasks with restrictions
- Accessibility: Taught our SGA to rethink the ways we learn and interact with our student body

BENEFITS OF NETWORKING

- Learning how other community college student governments function
- Seeing how an SGA meeting is conducted in a formal fashion
- Creating and sharing a collaborative Google Drive of SGA Constitutions and Bylaws
- Having Lee College's SGA recognized at the state level

OUTSTANDING
DELEGATION

IMPLEMENTED CHANGE

With what we had learned at the convention, we were equipped to make Lee College's SGA more approachable and interactive.

- Interaction-encouraging seating
- Use of slideshow during meetings
- Sign-in, agenda, and voting made accessible through QR code
- Use of a microphone during meetings
- Better understanding and practice of SGA meeting formalities
- Knowledge not just for members of SGA, but the advisors who will continue each chapter

THANK YOU!

For allowing us to enrich our student government for the present and future.