

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING OF THE BOARD

School Board Policy 200.1 ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Belmond-Klemme Community School District board is authorized by and derives its organization from Iowa law. The board will consist of seven board members. Board members are elected by both at-large and at-large by director district.

The board is organized for the purpose of setting policy and providing general direction for the school district. The board will hold its organizational meeting at the first regular meeting following the canvass of votes. The retiring board will transfer materials, including the board policy manual, and responsibility to the new board.

The organizational meeting allows the outgoing board to approve minutes of its previous meetings, complete unfinished business and review the school election results. The retiring board will adjourn and the new board will then begin. The board secretary will administer the oath of office to the newly-elected board members. The board secretary will preside while the new board elects the president of the new board.

Background:

In accordance with Board Policy 202.2, each elected director is required to take the oath of office. Board Policy 200.1 states that the “Board Secretary will administer the oath of office to the newly elected board members.”

“Do you solemnly swear that you will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Iowa, and that you will faithfully and impartially, to the best of your ability, discharge the duties of the office of board member in the Belmond-Klemme Community School District as now and hereafter required by law?”

3. b. Election of President of the New BoardBackground:

According to Board Policies 200.1, the Board Secretary will preside while the new board elects the president of the new board. The Board Secretary should call for nominations; nominations need not be seconded. If only one member is nominated, a motion may be made to appoint that person by acclamation in a voice vote; if more than one person is nominated, a recorded vote is required.

The election of the president and other officers of the Board may, if the Board so chooses, be by written ballot. However, in order to comply with the requirement of the Iowa Open Meetings law, each member must identify his/her ballot. Each ballot will then be attributed as it is tallied.

3. c. Administration of the Oath of Office to the Newly Elected President

“Do you solemnly swear that you will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Iowa, and that you will faithfully and impartially, to the best of your ability, discharge the duties of the office of Board President in the Belmond-Klemme Community School District as now and hereafter required by law?”

3. d. Election of Vice-president of the New BoardBackground:

3. k. Board Resolution to Authorize the Activities Director to Sign Game Officials’ Contracts

Background:

Iowa Code 291.1 identifies the duties of the school board president. It includes, “The president of the board of directors shall . . . sign all contracts made by the board.” However, Code allows for the board of directors, by resolution, to designate an individual (other than the board secretary) to sign documents as determined by the school board.

Game officials, such as referees and umpires, can change very rapidly. Games are sometimes subject to weather and other interferences. Games may be rescheduled with short notice with new officials. Moreover, the contracts for game officials are now transferred electronically.

Recommended Action:

I recommend the board pass a resolution to authorize the district’s activities director to sign the contracts of game (sports) officials:

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE DISTRICT’S ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR TO SIGN THE CONTRACTS OF GAME OFFICIALS

WHEREAS, Iowa Code 291.1 assigns the duty of signing all contracts to the school board president, and

WHEREAS, the contracts of game officials are now transmitted electronically,
