

Board Report

I am looking into the cost of replacing the heating system for the classrooms at the High school.

The heating system is thirty two years old and the plastic air lines are starting to rot in the walls along with the thermostatic air starting to fail. I would like to change it over to electronic.

Tom Muir