Agenda Item	Texas Independent School District v. Social Media
Policy Reference	FFEB and FFI
Strategic Goal	Student Success
Department	Student Support Services

Recommendation:
Information Only

Summary:

The case of Texas Independent School District (TXISD) v. Social Media centers on the growing tension between public schools and social media platforms over student safety, mental health, and online conduct. TXISD has raised concerns that social media companies contribute to increased instances of cyberbullying, distraction, and declining mental health among students.

Rationale:

Social media platforms are failing to take sufficient responsibility for the harmful content and addictive features that impact young users. TXISD seeks legal accountability and policy changes to better protect students

Recommended by:

Dr. Kristin Craft, Superintendent
