Ed Rising Program

What is Ed Rising?

Ed Rising is a program designed to inspire high school students to pursue careers in education. It offers leadership opportunities, skill-building activities, and the chance to explore a variety of education careers, helping students take the first steps toward becoming the next generation of educators.

Key Features of Ed Rising:

- Leadership Development: Through workshops and events, Ed Rising helps students build important leadership skills like communication, problem-solving, and teamwork.
 - Career Exploration: Students discover the various career paths in education, such as teaching, counseling, and administration through job shadowing and internships.
 - Networking: Ed Rising connects students with educators, mentors, and peers who share a passion for teaching.
 - Competitions: Students can participate in state and national competitions to showcase their knowledge and skills in education-related topics.
 - Scholarships: Ed Rising members have access to exclusive scholarships to help fund their future education and careers in teaching.

Opportunities for Student Experiences & "Grow Your Own Teachers" Initiative

- Student Experiences:
Ed Rising offers students numerous opportunities for real-world experience in the field of education. Through leadership roles, internships, and service projects, students can gain hands-on experience and learn valuable skills that will serve them throughout their future teaching careers.
 - "Grow Your Own Teachers" Program:
Educators Rising is a community based model, in which chapters at schools feed teacher preparation programs at institutes of higher education with the support of the CSDE. These entities come together to provide a clear pathway to increase teacher diversity and teacher quality. Through mentorship, training, and financial support, the program encourages students to pursue education as a career and equips them with the skills and knowledge needed to succeed in the classroom and beyond.

Ed Rising National Conference

What is the National Conference?

The Ed Rising National Conference, hosted by PDK International, is an exciting event for high school students passionate about education and teaching. It provides students with opportunities to attend workshops, meet education professionals, participate in competitions, and learn more about the field of education.

Conference Highlights:

- Workshops and Sessions: Focused on topics like teaching strategies, classroom management, and leadership in education.
- Competitions: Students can participate in education-related competitions, such as lesson planning, public speaking, and classroom activities.
- Networking: The conference offers a chance to meet other aspiring educators, mentors, and leaders in the education field.

- Special Events: Includes keynote speakers, panel discussions, and social events to engage and inspire students.

Why Attend?

The National Conference is a fantastic opportunity for students to immerse themselves in the world of education and teaching through professional learning sessions and networking with professionals and peers. Students can watch competitions, serve as program volunteers, attend breakout sessions and visit the Innovation and College Fair.

When and Where?

The Ed Rising National Conference takes place annually in June. This year it is being held at Rosen Shingle Creek Resort and Conference Center, and the overflow hotel is the Universal Cabana Bay in Orlando, Florida, June 26-30, 2025.

PDK International: Empowering Future Educators

What is PDK International?

Phi Delta Kappa (PDK) International is a professional association for educators that focuses on leadership development, educational research, and supporting future educators. Through PDK's programs, students gain access to a network of experienced educators, mentorship, and opportunities for career growth.
