Professional Practices

Responsive Classroom model

Safe School Climate Practices

Effective two way communication

Teacher sensitivity to students and topics

Information Literacy Instruction

Information literacy is a set of abilities requiring individuals to “recognize when information is needed and have the ability to locate, evaluate, and use effectively the needed information.”

Beecher students develop information strategies to:

Read, view, and listen for information in textual, visual, media, and digital formats

- Select and evaluate information for:
 - accuracy and validity
 - main and supporting ideas
 - diverse points of view or bias
- Gather and use information ethically
- Use social tools responsibly
