

So, you are interested in someday being on a local school board? You are on a local school board and are interested in learning more about the position? This orientation is for you! The event will be held at Canyon Ridge High School Room 301 on XXXXX at 7:00 pm. The workshop is entitled, "Nuts and Bolts of School Board Service: How to make a difference in your community!"

This event will include 15 minute workshops on topics related to school board service such as student achievement for board members, board practices that make a difference, building a foundation for success/avoiding pitfalls, and financial questions board members should ask. In addition to the assigned topics, we will review and discuss real life scenarios board members face and how to deal with them. The event will include a question and answer session.

This event is designed for current school board members, those considering running for a local school board in the next election, and interested citizens. The event is sponsored by the Fourth District Superintendents Association and is open to all interested people in the area.
