BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The TEA removed Social Studies K-12 from the “Proclamation 2025 State Adoption”. This request is a gap year purchase to renew foundational student licenses adopted during the 2015 state adoption for social studies.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES:

McGraw Hill is an awarded vendor on the District’s RFP# 2303-01 for Instructional Supplies, Software, Equipment and Services. This purchase is being brought for approval in accordance with the District’s CH (local) policy.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS:

The cost will be borne through the Instructional Materials Allotment (IMA) budget.

BENEFIT OF ACTION:

The approval of this purchase will allow the District to provide continuity of student licenses to support students in Texas History, U.S. to 1877 History, World Geography, Government, Psychology, and Sociology classes.

SUPERINTENDENT’S RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the quote from McGraw Hill be approved.
