Cassie's Corner...

I'd like to discuss Cyberbullying...it is the use of technology to tease, humiliate, threaten and/or harass someone. It can take place through text messaging or social media. Cyberbullies might send mean comments, post embarrassing photos, or share private information about someone to humiliate or mock them online. Even if your child isn't being cyberbullied, remind them that it is everyone's job to prevent bullying and encourage them to take a stand.

Spot It A child who is being cyberbullied may

- ▶ Avoid using the Internet
- ▶ Seem stressed when getting an email, text, or other message
- ▶ Withdraw from family and friends
- ▶ Resist attending school and social events
- ▶ Show signs of low self-esteem like depression or fear
- ▶ Have declining grades
- ▶ Stop eating or sleeping
- ▶ In serious cases, consider suicide

Deal With It If your child is being cyberbullied, teach them to

- ▶ Not respond
 - ▶ Save the evidence
- Any online harassment that is sexual in nature should also be reported to Report.CyberTip.org.
- If your child is being cyberbullied, you should
- ▶ Meet with school administrators to discuss a plan of action and their bullying/cyberbullying policy
 - ▶ Talk about the situation with the bully's parent or guardian

Stand Up To It If your child sees someone being cyberbullied, tell them to

- ▶ Not forward embarrassing photos or messages
- ▶ Not comment on insulting or harassing posts

The Book Shelf LBMS Library Happenings

Howdy Vikings,

Good news! LBMS will soon be able to have students check out books from our library! In the coming days I'll be coming up with a plan so that everyone can safely check books out and get back to reading their favorite titles. There will be an instructional presentation on how to search for and place a hold on books you'd like to read, and I can't wait to get it out to you.

Keep your eyes peeled for more information about this terrific development. It's going to be awesome to see your choices come across my screen and get them into your hands.

See you online!
