

Developing and Communicating the Strategic Plan Skeleton

Our MTSS WHY
Brainstorming- first words that come to mind as to why we do this.	students freedom life citizens help trauma intervention accelerate better support success challenge growth parent involvement innovation focus teamwork effective consistency data collaboration resources ownership student accountability engagement student driven framework triangle improvement well-being intrinsic motivation training community partnership parent training culturally relevant ALL students difficult human capital best practice unfunded mandate evidence based
Your “Compelling Why” Statement	In an effort to give all students access to a competitive edge when they leave Harvey 152 we must address the needs of students on a case by case basis by providing interventions that speak to the whole child. (not ignoring the whole child) We believe all children can learn if given quality education We believe all children have the right to learn and to be successful in life It takes a village to educate a child; we can’t do it by ourselves We can be the change for a child So that all students of any level are treated equitably
