Dear Mr. Thompson:

I am resigning from my position at Sunray ISD at the end of my contract year.

Before school even started, I was accused of running students out of band. That is not the case. Transition for a new band director will have its hardships. It usually can take three to five years to rebuild a band program. I was not even given that chance. I received little or no assistance which is a failure of the administration.

Sincerely,

Steven M. Wilkinson
