Bandera ISD Vision and Core Values

Each month, at the beginning of our regular meeting of the Bandera ISD Board of Trustees, individual Board members will share the BISD Vision and Core Values of the district:

- The Board President will share the Vision--Our vision is to be a small-town district creating a world-wide impact, and the Core Value--We value celebrating successes because we believe through all our accomplishments we instill pride into our community.
- The Board Vice President will share the Core Value--We value passionate people of integrity because we believe they have a positive impact on themselves, our community, and the future.
- The Board Secretary will share the Core Value--We value choices in learning experiences because we believe choices cultivate personal growth and individual pride.
- The Board Assistant Secretary will share the Core Value--We value small-town support and relationships because we believe shared responsibility is the backbone of our community.
