Code of Conduct for Interscholastic Activities

(This is addressed in policy IDGJ.)

The School Board believes that employees, coaches, volunteers and students, participating in or attending school functions or school-sponsored events, whether they be on or outside school grounds, should act accordingly as representatives of their school and district. For that reason, employees, coaches, volunteers and students are expected to behave in a courteous, civil, respectful and dignified way when attending school functions or school-sponsored events. Employees, coaches, volunteers and students must comply with all standards of conduct of the school district and the Oregon School Activities Association.
