Priority 1: Student Success

- Fall activities begin on August 11. We are looking forward to a great fall.
- Good luck to our FFA and 4H students that are showing at the MN State Fair.

Priority 2: Effective Staffing

- We are still looking for one educational assistant/paraprofessional for this school year.
- Welcome back to Ms. Steele as high school science and Mr. Young and Ms. Lombard as daily substitutes.

Priority 3: Finance

- Thank you to all of the organizations sponsoring our activities.
- Thank you to the Foundation for supporting writing of a number of grants.

Priority 4: Facilities

- The building is looking great. We have a lot of fresh paint down the hallway. We hopefully won't see any peeling red and black paint.
- A huge thanks to Dan and the Dashir crew for all the work this summer. We have a lot of extra projects done, well beyond just cleaning classrooms and waxing floors.

Priority 5: Community Engagement

- Look for Clipper, at the Crossing Center on August 20.

Upcoming Events:

August 25 – 1st Day of School for Grades 6, 9 and all new students

August 26 – School for all High School Students
