

Foundation Report from Liz Hamilton: 3/27/17

- Updates on projects currently in development:
 - Library t-shirts to benefit the Endowment/Friends is being developed, these will be sold in the Friends Bookstore and at Foundation events
- Upcoming Author Events:
 - April 3rd: Ron May, book: Our Service Our Stories
 - April 13th: Kayla Rae Whitaker, book: The Animators
- Upcoming Programs:
 - April 5th: Brad Ring, Indy Eleven, will return for a children's program on soccer, health and fitness
 - April 8th: a partnership with the Palladium, I will be taking Library materials over for a morning Program
 - April 14th: Documentary will be shown on marathon running in partnership with the Carmel Marathon
- Stethoscope Series: The first of an 8 program series for 2017 with Franciscan Health was held on March 7. We had 25 in attendance.
- The Foundation has been busy switching our donor tracking system from Donor Perfect to a local company, Bloomerang. We went live with the new company on Wednesday, March 22.
- Summer Reading Challenge: Along with the $20,000 from Clay Township we have secured two additional $1K sponsors: Coasterstone and Engledow. (We have also been working on securing prizes/giveaways for the Challenge.)
- Movie Night in Partnership with The New Harmony Project was well received. We had 80 in attendance on Friday, February 24 to see All The Way.