Diana Hejtmanek	Chignik Lake	Thank you so much to Diana for being one of our Ed Rising Teacher Leaders this year. We so appreciate your continued advocacy for your students in Chignik Lake. Thank you for participating in the Ed Rising in person PD, the virtual monthly PDs, and the hours you spent supporting your student in their project. I admire how you jumped right in after your student showed interest in participating in this program. You are a rock star!	Patricia McCasland, BBRCTE Career Development Specialist
JW Newton	Port Heiden	Thank you so much to JW for being one of our Ed Rising Teacher Leaders this year. We so appreciate your continued advocacy for your students at Meshik School. Thank you for the incredible communication these last few months and pushing your students to jump outside of their comfort zone. Thank you for the hours you spent on supporting your students in working on their project, your hard work and dedication does not go unnoticed.	Patricia McCasland, BBRCTE Career Development Specialist
Taylor Clay	Newhalen	Taylor is such a dedicated student and such a good human being! She comes to class ready to work every day and is always willing to help a friend if they need it. She puts forth her best effort on her assignments and makes everyone feel like they are heard and important. Thank you for being awesome, Taylor!	Kate Cornell, Teacher
Christina Salmon	Igiugig	The real question is why this person shouldn't be a Shining. Christina is an active member of our school. From coaching battle books to volunteering in the kitchen. She has been a tremendous help this month and we appreciate her so much. Qu yana Christina!	Stephanie Canning, Teacher
