Good Things

- Mrs. Perry's 6th grade drama class performed The Best Christmas Pageant Ever on Wednesday. They began the quarter by learning basic drama skills and then moved into planning and rehearsing.
- Sixteen students in Ms. Henkel art class had artwork that was accepted into the finals for the Young Artist Showcase. This is held at the Madden Arts Center in Decatur. They will have the opportunity to attend a reception on January 7th.

- We welcomed Mr. Eli Holman to PJHS a few weeks ago as our new AES paraprofessional. He has done a fabulous job taking over the PAWS room and assisting with Chromebook repairs throughout the day.

Students of the Month

- 6th Grade - Parker Lehn and Kenley Cox
- 7th Grade - Aydan Barnes and Jamie Hunter
- 8th Grade - Kaitlyn Davis and Dallas Lewis

Clubs

- The Student Council planned a week of fun activities to send everyone off for Christmas Break. Students participated in PJ Day, Best Christmas Swag Day, Elf Hiding Game, and ended the week with our 2nd quarter celebration. They also raised $252 to donate to AAMP by selling 50/50 raffle tickets and hosting a half-court shot competition during a boys basketball game.

Extracurricular

- Cayden Boykin auditioned for the Illinois Music Educators Association District Band Festival earlier this year. In November, he performed in a band of about 100 kids at Eastern Illinois University.
- Boys basketball is in full swing and girls volleyball just finished try-outs. They will begin their season after Christmas break.
