

Short Term Education

Certified Nursing Assistant Class started 2/21

There are 5 CNA students. The class is going well.

The Spring welding class has finished. We are still looking for a welding instructor for next year. There is already some interest in the next welding class.

Future Classes

We will hopefully be doing more classes each semester next school year. I am looking at adding an English Second Language class and some sort of exercise class.

Scott Webb

Short Term Education Coordinator