Homeless students have the right to dispute their school assignment, if their assignment is other than their school of origin. If the districts cannot agree upon such a method, the responsibility and costs must be shared equally.

The Superintendent will appoint a Liaison for Homeless Children who will perform the duties as assigned by the Superintendent. Additionally, the Liaison will coordinate and collaborate with the State Coordinator for the Education of Homeless Children and Youth as well as with community and school personnel responsible for the provision of education and related services to homeless children and youths.

After a period of eighteen (18) months and annually thereafter, the School District may conduct a review of the student's situation in order to assess if the economic or other hardship still exists. If, on the basis of the review, the District determines that the family no longer suffers such hardship, it will notify the family in writing and begin the process of dispute resolution as set forth by law.

Any change as a result of this review and determination shall be effective solely at the close of the school year.
