

Indian Springs NJHS receives City of Keller award

The City of Keller recognized Indian Springs National Junior Honor Society as Volunteer Group of the Year in appreciation for their outstanding volunteer service and dedication to the city of Keller. Indian Springs NJHS kids volunteered over 400 hours last year in Keller for various community service projects.

NJHS officers include President Amanda Mayhall, Vice President Brandon Castro, Secretary Angela Meng, Treasurer Connor Yancy, Webmaster Kelly Fagerman and Event Coordinator Zach Schmitz. Their sponsor is Rena Kistler.

KISD wrestlers reach state competition

Several KISD wrestlers recently reached the state wrestling competition. Central High School Senior Jeb Clay placed fourth in the 180 weight class, and junior Angel Miller reached the state competition in the 119 weight class. Waymon May is their coach.

FRHS wrestler Rachel Ramos was a state qualifier in the girls 102 pound weight class. Her coach is Tony Lopez.

KHS wrestlers Zach Waldrop placed fourth in the 125 weight class, and Camron Couch was a state qualifier in the 160 pound weight class. Their coach is Jim Schee.

Keller High divers and swimmers reach state competition

Keller High School swimmers and divers recently reached the state competition. Callan Buck placed ninth in the girls one meter diving. Alex Fincher finished fifth in the boys one meter diving. Finally, Madison Fleming finished 13th in the girls 100 Yard Butterfly. Ashley Knapp is the interim Keller High swimming coach for Lena Darnell and Katie Beth Bryant is the diving coach.