Where: Browning Middle School-Room 149

When: Every Thursday starting October 2, 2014

Time: 4:00 to 5:00

Summary of Proposed Club Activities:

Outdoor activities are an excellent avenue to promote good health and wellbeing for young adolescence. Through the club, I am hoping to promote a connection to the natural world. The girls will plan activities and share their interests with others. We will be learning to use camping equipment, learn about winter survival, organizing a trip, outdoor cooking, and respect for our environment. The club will be an extension of the Blackfeet Academy Wilderness Adventure Program. I will be recruiting girls from 5th grade to 8th grade to participate in the club and also High School girls to help with the activities
