Summary:

The Texas Education Code requires the Board of Trustees of every public school district to annually adopt a Student Code of Conduct (SCC). The Student Code of Conduct establishes the district's standards for student behavior and outlines disciplinary consequences designed to maintain a safe and orderly learning environment.

State law requires the SCC to include the circumstances under which a student may be removed from a classroom, campus, or other district property, as well as the procedures governing disciplinary actions. Once adopted, the district must make the Student Code of Conduct readily accessible to students, parents, staff, and the community by posting it prominently on each campus or making it available for review in the principal's office.

Annual adoption ensures the Student Code of Conduct remains aligned with current state law, district policies, and best practices for supporting a safe and positive educational environment.

Background Information:

Each year, Walsh Gallegos provides an updated Student Code of Conduct (SCC) that reflects changes in state and federal law, as well as guidance from the Texas Education Agency. The District Leadership Team reviews the annual updates, evaluates the recommended revisions, and makes any additional changes necessary to ensure the Student Code of Conduct aligns with district practices and legal requirements.

In accordance with the Texas Education Code, the Board of Trustees is required to adopt and make the Student Code of Conduct available to students, parents, and staff each school year. Adoption of the Student Code of Conduct ensures the district remains compliant with state law and provides clear expectations for student behavior, disciplinary procedures, and student rights and responsibilities.
