2. The relevance of this activity to ISBE teaching standards was clear.	30	15	7	1	1
2. It was clear that the activity was presented by persons with education and experience in the subject manner.	33	13	5	3
3. The material was presented in an organized, easily understood manner.	32	15	5	2	1
4. This activity included discussion, critique, or application of what was presented, observed, learned or demonstrated.	30	13	8	2	1

Comments:

The best features of this activity were:

- Dr. Cinnamon and Teacher Peach was the best
- Afternoon sessions were shorter and more relevant
- Hands on activities were great

Suggestions for improvement:

- All principals should be present and more visible
- Please do not ever have Mr. Arthur back to speak (Mr. Arthur was terrible)
- Presenters should deliver information with substance; the lawyer's presentation was good but too long
- The room was uncomfortable to write in (band room)
- Teacher groups are more relevant to collaborate and focus on areas that pertain to our needs

Other comments and reactions I wish to offer:

- Dr. Cinnamon/Curtis Young were great
- Someone really appreciated all of the tools received to implement Common Core
- Steven Arthur was a waste of time and pointless as a presenter

-Information shared should be applicable to all subject areas or paraprofessionals should attend a separate workshop.

Comments:

The best features of this activity were:

- The step-by-step hands on learning was great and extremely useful
- Mr. Young had very useful strategies

Suggestions for improvement:

- It was great information but I never got to use it because the presenter spoke too fast and didn't give teachers time to follow along or log-in.
- If I didn't have previous knowledge; I wouldn't be able to follow along
- Presenter needed more time to give this info to the class.

Other comments and reactions I wish to offer:

- Mr. Young was a great speaker yet he needs to cover everything. This workshop need more time.
