

Building Tomorrow's Workforce:

Partnerships for a Future-Ready Estacada

December 11, 2024

Purpose

Career and Technical Education equips Estacada students with real-world skills, fostering career readiness and lifelong learning while contributing to a thriving local economy. Aligned with the district's mission, CTE builds partnerships with businesses and the community to prepare students as future-ready leaders and innovators.

Career Readiness

Community & Economic Impact

Real-World Learning

Current CTE Pathways:

Preparing Students for Success

Manufacturing

Exploring dual credit options
Scope and sequence aligned
with industry standards
Work based learning

Automotive

Scope and sequence aligned
with industry standards
Exploring work based learning opportunities

Agriculture

Dual credit options
Scope and sequence aligned
with industry standards

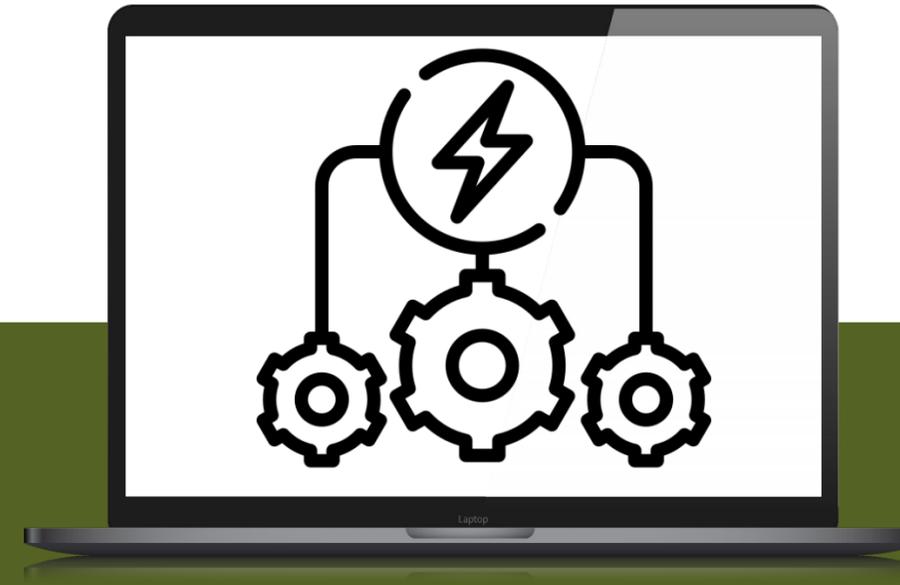

CTE Pathways:

Experiment and Explore

Early Childhood

Exploring current structures Researching models in neighboring districts

Electrical Systems

Partnership development with PGE Site visits to Line School and other programs
Program development 25-26

The Future

Estacada Career and Technical Education Center

Holden Industrial Technology Center (CCC)

Career & Workforce Development Center

Preparing Students and Connecting Community

- Community
- Strengthen Local Economy
 - Access to State of the Art Facilities
 - Enhance Workforce Development
 - Advanced Training Center for Career Advancement and Skill Enhancement
 - Partnership with Local Businesses to Identify Community Needs

Estacada SD - Students

- Increased Offerings to Career Pathway Programs
- Hands-On Job Related Experiences
- Access to College Credits and Industry Certifications
- Pre-Apprenticeship Programs
- Experience and Networking with Industry Professionals
- Career Ready at Graduation

- Industry Partners
- Increased Access to Skilled Workforce Pipeline
 - Builds Sustainable Business Collaboration
 - Alignment of Education with Industry Needs

Families

- Access to Affordable, Quality Training
- Local Opportunities for Student Growth

TIMELINE

324 SW 2nd Ave
Estacada, Oregon

Next Steps

