1st Quarter Discipline Data

2010-2011

Elementary Level

Level 2 Referrals (114)

Disaggregated Discipline Data for Special Education Students:

- 480 were identified as receiving special education services.
- This makes up 14.9% of the 3210 elementary students.
- 21 students generated 31 referrals. This is 4.3% of the students identified and 27% of the 114 total referrals.

Disaggregated Discipline Data for Free and Reduced Lunch Students:

- 1687 students we identified as eligible for receiving free and reduced lunch.
- This makes up 52% of the 3210 elementary students.
- 28 students (of schools reporting) generated 35 referrals. This is 1.6% of the students identified and 30% of the 114 total referrals

Total Race/Ethnicity Report:

- The attached report shows 1st quarter discipline data for the following categories: Students receiving special education services, students eligible for free and reduced lunch, and students by race and ethnicity. The report also shows the following data from within each student category: Total number of students and the percent of the total student body, the number of students generating referrals and the total number of referrals generated from each category, the percentage of total referrals generated from each category, and the percentage of students generating referrals from within each category.